Pipeline To Mean Money, Jobs Here

Yellowhead Route Is Seen Only Logical Gas Outlet

By Alex Janusitis

The smoke from the titanic battle of the pipelines is threatening to obscure the all-important fact that the all-Canadian route from Edmonton through the Yellowhead Pass, to Vancouver, is the one that will do Alberta most good.

The prize the titans of American and Canadian finance are battling over is the right to finance the $160 million-or-so pipeline to export Alberta natural gas to the Pacific coast.

The issue has become confused by entry of five major groups into the battle. They are offering a half-dozen different routes for the pipeline.

But a careful study of the facts, from the standpoint of Alberta's immediate best interests and future development of its great oil and gas resources, shows clearly that choice of any other but the Yellowhead Pass route would be a betrayal of Edmonton and Alberta's future.

Edmonton Would Be Hub

The facts are:

1 The pipeline to Vancouver, no matter what route it takes, will cost approximately the same, $75,000,000. The Yellowhead Pass route offered by the Western Transmission Company will ensure that four-fifths of the money and the 2,000 jobs the pipeline will create for two years will go to Albertans and Canadians. If the pipeline goes south through American territory to Vancouver, Canada will get only one-fifth of the money and the jobs.

2 Only the Yellowhead Pass route will guarantee Edmonton's future as the centre of the province's vast oil and gas industries.

Under the Western Transmission Company plan, a grid system would reach out to cathode the south as well as the north immediately and carry the gas to Edmonton. From Edmonton, the pipeline would be piped out, first, to meet other Canadian demands; secondly, to meet other Canadian demands; and thirdly, to markets outside of Canada.

Edmonton would be the hub of all the pipelines.

Canadians Keep Control

Westcoast Transmission is prepared to bring 200 wells into production in the province at the same time as it is building the pipeline.

6 The Yellowhead Pass route would give Alberta a year-round road link with B.C.'s highway system.

7 To maintain the pipeline, the company building it must also build a road over which its crews can travel. The road would be open to all motorists.

8 The Yellowhead Pass route would give gas services to many more communities in Alberta than the southern route would.

9 All communities lying reasonably close to the main pipeline through the geographical centre of the province and to the network of gas-gathering pipelines would be able to get gas.

10 These factors make the Westcoast Transmission Company's pipeline plan and route through the Yellowhead Pass the best any group has produced.

TRAILER TROUBLES BESET OUR COLUMNIST

Soldiers' Push Keeps Scotts Mobile First Day Out

Bulletin Columnist Jack Scott has started out on a Trans-Canada trailer journey that will take him from one end of the country to the other, during which he'll bring you the counter-attack story of the Canadian people. Here he tells of the first day out—Editor.

Cutias Lake, B.C. This is the first day and like first anywhere—the first kiss, first pregnancies or first murders—it's been hard on the nerves.

We parked tonight in a grove of pines on the shore of Cutias Lake. But it would be a great big relief to have the trailer here, everything so peaceful about it.

The rain is drumming down on the trailer's aluminum roof. The Coleman lamp is hissing. There is the smell of burning paint from all our new "conveniences"—the two lamps, the Coleman stove, the Coleman cooler, the Coleman lantern. The two kids are finally settled into their "room" after a trying day. They looked on it all this morning as a fine adventure, this odyssey across Canada, but you know how kids are when they're tired. Tonight they were missing their familiar beds and the security of their parents and they felt strange in a house that reeks on its springs when you turn over in bed. So we're in, I guess.

Fact is, after 50-odd miles of travel we've found that life has suddenly become enormously complicated. I am a man with no feeling whatsoever for mechanical contraptions and the trailer's aluminum roof is hissing. There is the smell of burning paint from all our new "conveniences"—the two lamps, the Coleman stove, the Coleman cooler, the Coleman lantern. The two kids are finally settled into their "room" after a trying day. They looked on it all this morning as a fine adventure, this odyssey across Canada, but you know how kids are when they're tired. Tonight they were missing their familiar beds and the security of their parents and they felt strange in a house that reeks on its springs when you turn over in bed. So we're in, I guess.

Public To Learn Details Of Scheme

Final draft agreement on the $28,000,000 Detweiler plan for city centre development should emerge for public inspection within a week.

That's the word today from I. E. Detweiler, vice-president of First-North American Corporation, who arrived back in the city from New York last night.

He said the co-operation received from city officials during the long negotiations has been "wonderful." Completed legal conferees have kept cropping up and have had to be referred to a number of officials and legal authorities before being set down in the draft.

GOES TO MEETING
Mr. Detweiler suggested the draft probably will be presented to a special meeting of city council next week, and if it receives affirmative approval, it will go to the Provincial Utility Commissioners for a full-fledged public hearing.

If no various opposition develops at the hearing, the commissioners may put their stamp of approval on the scheme. But if there is strenuous opposition, they may order that a plebiscite be held among Edmonton taxpayers.

Only after these steps are gone through, can the city consider against the draft proposal to build a huge shopping, commercial and professional development, with parking for more than 1,800 parked cars.

TO GIVE DETAILS
"This agreement as drawn will be placed in the hands of aldermen within a few days and after they have had four days to consider it, a special council meeting will be called to discuss it," said Mr. Detweiler.

"When the meeting is held, full details will be made public," he added.

Hot Weather Worsens Fires

Hot sunny weather set the forest fire hazard skyrocketing in Alberta's northern bush lands today. Four new fires were reported yesterday.

Forestry officials of the Alberta government stressed warnings to hunters and campers to exercise extreme caution in the woods. Timber is drying rapidly in the hot weather.

Crews of fire fighters using a bulldozer was sent to the area north of Whitecourt today where a new blaze is threatening timber stands.

Two other new fires were reported in the Fort Assiniboine area, and another new blaze broke out at Lac la Biche. These three are small blazes and should be brought under control quickly, officials said.

Fires reported earlier this week are now all under control or extinguished.

NEWSPAPER SELF SERVING AT FISH TIME

KEWASNA, Ind., June 3. (AP)—If you want to do business with the Kewasna Observer today just walk in and write your own advertisement or news item.

The door is open but publisher Bill Lyon isn't there. Fishing is too good. His weekly newspaper came out with this notice on page one:

"The office of the Observer will be closed June 3, 2 and 3 due to good fishing conditions. The office door will be left open and paper and pencils will be on the counter for accommodation of patrons who wish to leave news items, advertising or seek estimates on 'job work'."

New Inshore Craft

UPPER LAHAYE, N.B.—(CP)—

Nova Scotia's newest type of in-shore craft is a 55-foot boat for longhulking. The first of them was launched here recently. Engineers of the provincial fisheries division say this craft could make possible a new expansion of S.E. fisheries.

Mechanization

HALIFAX—(CP)—New tool dialing equipment has arrived here and may be put into service next month, the Maritime Telegraph and Telephone Co. announced.

The company is erecting a new building to house the equipment.

RCMP Eyes Helicopter

By Harry Etheridge

Exclusive to the Bulletin

MONTREAL, Que.—(BUP)—Royal Canadian Mounted Police looked today to the Canadian aviation industry to supply helicopters that would aid police work in the rugged Canadian northland.

"We are definitely interested in getting helicopters," a spokesman for the Mounties said. "If we can buy them cheaply and if the cost of new equipment is low."

The RCMP operates seven aircraft: two Bechcrafts, a Norseman, Grumman Goose, Stinson, Beaver and Comel. Last year, the RCMP patrolled more than 500,000 miles of Northern Canada, mostly by aircraft.

RCMP Commissioner S. T. Wood recently said he observed in Montreal, where the first Canadian-built helicopter was put through its paces at Dorval Airport.

INTERESTED IN PRICE

The observers said they were impressed not only by its performance but also by the manufacturer's claim that its price would be below that of American helicopters, when fully loaded with fuel, oil, and other necessities. The helicopter was under way.

Officials of Inter-City Airlines, manufacturers of the plane, said they were unable to quote a price for the plane at the moment, "but it will definitely be below the

Day Of Thanks Named By Church

United Church Marks Day To Appreciate Recruit Fund

TORONTO—Sunday, June 11, has been set aside by the United Church of Canada as a special Day of Thanks when envelopes will be placed in all churches for the provision of a fund to aid recruits to the church.

In making this announcement, Rev. W. Harold Young, Secretary of the Board of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the United Church of Canada said that "the aid the church now gives to candidates for the ministry is a pitiful CHURCH SURVEY"

In a recent United Church survey to determine the background of recruits for the church, it was established that a little over 30 per cent came from farm homes across Canada, while a further 20 per cent came from the professions, the sons of men and women who had made the church their life.

The next largest group was found in the sons of small-town merchants and tradespeople.

Quite a few more were carpenters, said Dr. Young, "reminding us that the greatest preacher of all was the son of a carpenter."

The report said that the remainder were drawn from a wide cross-section of the community, including fishermen, loggers, blacksmiths, barbers, miners and so on.

Most significant is the fact that in our records only three sons of lawyers and four sons of doctors

First War Veteran Dies In England

SHOEBURNE, Eng., June 3. (AP)—Daniel Laidlaw, 76, who ignored German gunfire to rally and lead shaken British troops with baggage mail at the battle of Loos the first World War, died yesterday.

He won the Victoria Cross for his feat in marching up and down the parapet of his unit's trench under fire playing his pipes.

He rallied the Scottish borders and played them on in an assault on the German lines. He was wounded in the attack.

$60,000 you have to pay for a similar plane in the United States.

The helicopter, designated the SG Mark VES, is the brain-child of the engineering team of Bernard Smircer and Edna Gottlieb of New York. It has a cruising speed of 80 miles an hour and a top speed of about 100 miles an hour. It was capable of carrying three persons.

The RCMP observers said speed was not of prime interest to them. They looked for durability, maneuverability and low cost of maintenance.

ONE THIRDED COST
Mr. Hardwicke said the books are being sold at about one-third original cost. Choosing a few bargains at random, he picked up "Italian Pleasure Gardens," originally $10 now $3.50. Hastings dictionary of the bible in four volumes, $15 when new, now selling

Late Reverend Leaves 25,000-Book Library

TORONTO, June 3.—(CP)—Some people collect stamps for a hobby, others save match folders, Rev. Silem G. Bland collected books.

When he died recently Dr. Bland, eloquent and social-minded United Church minister, left a magnificent private library of 25,000 books which are now being sold.

A glance at the titles of some of the books show the breadth of the veteran Dr. Bland's interests. Although religious books predominate, there are also in abundance books of history, biography, poetry, art, philosophy, economics and politics, geography and travel.

ANCIENT CLASSICS

The ancient classics mingle with such modern works as Stuart Chase's "The Tragedy of Waste" and Huxley's "Causality: A Study in Overload," the history of the Canadian army in the Second World War.

Dr. Bland had 25,000 books dealing with Abraham Lincoln. There is even a 2-volume set on physiology—the apparatus of character from facial features and Frenet's three-inch-thick book "Psychology of Everyday Life." And with this wealth there is mingled some leavening fare from the pen of Stephen Leacock.

"The library covers everything under the sun," said Rev. John Hardwicke of Tewkesbury, Ont., longtime friend of Dr. Bland who is conducting the sale. "There's even one titled 'The Natural History of Ice and Snow.'"

Proceeds of the sale—an estimated $40,000—will go to St. Michael's.

Wide Experience Backing New Dry Cleaning Plant

Edmonton's newest and most modern cleaning and dyeing establishment, Rainbow Dyers and Cleaners, will be officially opened Saturday.

Located at 12524-118 avenue, the $25,000 establishment is owned and managed by experienced cleaner and dyer, Joseph Proder.

Mr. Proder learned the dyeing and cleaning processes from his former employer, master dyer and chemist, and now some worked in a number of leading firms in Toronto and Winnipeg.

STUCCO FINISH

Interior of the 60 by 35 foot concrete building is finished in stucco, an addition at the rear where all the communications are.

Latest up-to-date equipment have been used throughout the entire building to ensure perfect clothing service.

Main building is partitioned in three sections: the attractive polished finished office, the shipping and receiving room, and the large combination finishing and tailoring room.

FINE STAFF

From the moment the garment reaches the building it receives thorough treatment, pressed dry through the combination of the full-automatic staff and the latest modern equipment.

First step in the operation is that of taking garments to the dry cleaning department where the latest in automatic washer, tumbler and extrating machines remove all dirt.

Then, instead of the usual hand-drying, the garments are placed in a modern equipment.

The finished goods are then sent to the finishing department and the cleaning of the garments is completed.

★Finest Quality Dry Cleaning

The new plant is fully equipped to offer only the finest service... Garments are received, thoroughly examined and directed to the Dry Cleaning room, which is equipped with latest automatic machines—like the washer tumbler and extractor. The plant is operated by Mr. Joseph Proder who has had many years experience in Dry Cleaning having trained under and succeeded his father who was a master Dyer and Dry Cleaner in Europe, and also had extensive experience in Winnipeg and Toronto.

★Finest Dyeing In Town!

No longer need you send your garments out of town for the finest dyeing. Modern dyeing was developed in Germany and Poland and Mr. Carl Kops, our master dyer, learned his trade in those countries where he became highly skilled and did considerable research work. The Rainbow uses the best of imported and domestic dyes, and under Mr. Kops direction our dyeing department can achieve outstanding results. Each garment is individually tested for the correct dyes for each fabric.

GREAT deal of microscope work must be done on poultry specimens brought to new provincial government laboratory. Handworking Dr. C. H. Bigland made diagnosis on 800 last month. Poultrymen are becoming more aware of saving the service provided.

New Laboratory Makes Poultry Profitable

By Marjorie Jones
Provincial Editor

Alberta farmers' poultry profits are made right in the new provincial laboratory here in the city.

Profits have a lot to do with management of course. But if it weren't for the work done here on disease, profits a good poultryman might have a right to expect, might never materialize.

His whole investment could be wiped out in days before the laboratory was established that he began to hope.

Now with a slim margin between profit and loss in the poultry business, his work is of vast importance.

Dr. C. H. Bigland, veterinarian in charge of the laboratory, last year examined 3,500 specimens and made diagnoses from his findings in May alone of this year he has 800 to work on.

CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE
If an incident of even $10 each could be made on the savings to poultrymen, of each diagnosis, it would amount to a fair total.

But there is no charge and no way of accurately estimating the saving the lab has been responsible for.

The service is performed free of charge by the Alberta government.

Both poultrymen and practicing veterinarians make use of the service and the work done here provides means to a cure, if there is one.

Diagnosis, made in 1938, proved 1939 when the first lab was set up, were extremely high and there is still plenty of disease.

Avian tuberculosis and Newcastle are poultry enemies No. 1 and 2. Tuberculosis is being controlled but the second disease and Newcastle are still beyond the reach of control.

The new lab opened last July just across the road from the University farm, it is unable to do its work in the mysterious disease but close watch is being kept on it. Alberta farmers will benefit as new scientific discoveries are made.

Fossilized Animal Found Near Rocky
ROCKY MOUNTAIN HOUSE, June 3.—A fossilized animal found by John Hogan on the river bank near his farm at Horburg, 20 miles west, is being displayed here.

It is flat on the base with traces of coal showing on the surface and weighs 300 pounds. At one end there is a long, narrow, thin, mountain shape and at the other end is a more indistinct head, larger in every way and with larger horns, but apparently the same type of animal.

A few miles from Horburg, there is a stream of water which is said to have fossilizing qualities, and this animal may have been washed down the river from there.

TURKEY could even a day old can be figured worth $1. In these days of high costs a few losses could soon put poultrymen out of business. Veterinary student William Lawrence assists Dr. Richard in work.

Six Nations To Pool Coal, Steel Output

PARIS, June 2.—Six European countries agreed today to pool their coal and steel production as one means of uniting western Europe and of strengthening economic unity. They also expressed hope the plan would serve to advance the cause of world peace.

France, western Germany, Belgium, Italy, Luxembourg and the Netherlands agreed to go along with the pool plan proposed last May by Foreign Minister Robert Schuman of France.

Belgium declined to join in a treaty but the French agreed to limit its own production to 10 per cent of the total production of the six countries.

French Gold Hits Bottom

PARIS, June 3.—(CP)—The biggest slump ever recorded on the French free gold market, occurred this week.

The Napoleon, former French 20-franc gold coin dropped at one point to 270 francs, the lowest since the market reopened. The gold insect was traded at 420,000 francs.

A technical recovery later ensued as gold supplies from abroad ceased because the Paris level was too low to make these sales profitable.

It was noted that cheaper coins, such as the 20-mark coin, met a heavy demand and that professional carried out arbitrage operations between the various types of coins.

Although some circles thought the present gold prices had touched the bottom, the general belief in bullion circles was that a further decline in coins might not be impossible, although investments in gold insects might become interesting.

Church Birthday

MONTREAL, June 3.—(CP)—Some 40 delegates from all parts of Canada will meet in Memorial Presbyterian church here next Monday when the 75th anniversary of the Presbyterian church in Canada will open with a pre-service congress.

Monty was accused of embezzling the money since he joined the bank as manager in 1929 at the Grenville. He was said to have stolen the money from "legal positions" in his "safekeeping" as well as from the branch.

Although Grenville is a small farming community on the Quebec side of the Ottawa river opposite Hawkesbury, Ont., bank officials said several large pulp mills are located in the area and more than $100,000 passes through the branch each week.

Monty was associated with the bank for 28 years, having joined it in 1912 and serving in several branches before going to Grenville in 1929.

4-Month Term Follows Trial For Thievery

A youth who stole 12 diamond rings valued at $1,800 was sentenced to four months imprisonment yesterday in police court.

Rajni Madhrye, 19, blamed the theft and drunkenness.

He told officers that he was passing Keweenaw jewelry store east of May 16 and saw the rings. He went to an alley, picked up a piece of concrete, broke the window of the store and removed the tray holding the rings.

Two of the 12 rings were recovered and Madhrye promised restitution of $300 would be made for the other two.

ADAMANT ATTITUDE of 16-year-old Ronald E. Anderson of Minneapolis failed to convince policeman this week an officer took youth into custody for investigation following crackup when Anderson's car hit tree. Casual, toothpick-chewing officer listened to plan and took youth to jail.

New Surgery Offers Hope

LONDON, June 3.—(AP)—A medical team reported yesterday a "tag-surgery" operation to cure a common form of heart disease.

The team indicated the operation offered new hope to persons whose hearts have been weakened by rheumatic fever.

Seven successful operations for aortic heart cases (blue babies) mitral stenosis (valvular disease of the heart) are described in the British Medical Journal, publication of the British Medical Association. Mitral stenosis often follows rheumatic fever.

The operations were performed by Drs. Charles Baker, R. C. Brock and Maurice Campbell, of Guy's hospital. Dr. Brock was the surgeon.

He is well known in Britain for his successful operations two years ago on the pulmonary valve in congenital cases (blue babies) monies periodically in widely sepa-

RCAF Orders Many Jets For Defence

MONTREAL, June 3.—(CP)—Defence Minister Claxton said last night the first CF-100 will streak eastward shortly on an unprecedented non-stop trans-Atlantic flight by a jet fighter and announced that the RCAF is placing its first large order for the black beauties.

The CF-100, the long-range, all-weather night fighter designed to defend Canada's vastness, will show her wares "in the biggest and most important European air demonstration" of the year at Farnborough, England.

The jet fighter was built at the A. V. Roe Company plant at Malton, Ont. near Toronto.

Mr. Claxton said, too, that two of Canada's seven aircraft plants have swung over to other lines of production because of lack of work.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the Aviation Writers of America Association, he recalled that the RCAF placed an order for 10 of the CF-100 planes even before the first prototype, the one going to England, was flown.

"Now," he said, "the flight tests are well advanced and the aircraft has been found to meet and exceed our best expectations... negotiations are under way to place an additional order for more of the same type."

(In Ottawa, defence officials said the size of the order can't be made public because it would give away valuable facts about Canada's air defence plans. They have announced an order for 100 short-range F84 fighters, now being built at Montreal.)

OTTAWA, June 3.—(CP)—Dr. Fred London of London, Ont., yesterday was chosen chairman of the historic sites and monuments board of Canada.

St. John T. Kidd, fifth bishop of the Roman Catholic diocese of London, and former bishop of Calgary, died suddenly from a heart attack at his residence here last night. He was 81.

He was succeeded by Rev. John C. Cody, former bishop of Victoria, B.C.

Although frail in physique, and in failing health for some time, Kidd had written him a personal message of consolation. The solemn requiem mass will be held at St. Peter's Cathedral at 10 a.m. next Wednesday.

In honor of his anniversary, the Pope recently had appointed Bishop Kidd a Roman count and elevated him as an assistant to the papal throne. He had written him a personal message of consolation. The solemn requiem mass will be held at St. Peter's Cathedral at 10 a.m. next Wednesday.

Commons Drives Toward Conclusion

Government Forces Cut Business Down Considerably

By James H. Nelson

OTTAWA, June 3.—(RUP)—Government business in the House of Commons was cut to a mere six items today as members rested on what might be their last free Saturday of the current session.

Morning sessions were launched Thursday in a new parliamentary work-up as warm weather came to Ottawa. Members on the government side of the chamber indicated Saturday sessions might start next week.

But they were not reckoning with the opposition. Progressive Conservative, CCF and Social Credit members lined up in a long, hard battle with the government before agreeing to quit for the summer.

Target date for prorogation was tentatively set for June 15, but even Liberal members expressed doubt parliament would prorogue much before the end of the month.

ACT REVISION

Most bills before the House were relatively unimportant. They include amendments to the Electricity and Gas Inspection act, the Department of Transport Stores act, the Wheat Board act, and a bill regarding publication of statutory regulations.

More weighty measures to be debated included a complete consolidation and revision of national defence legislation, now before the House.

Transport Minister Lionel Chevrier backed the board's decision. He criticized opposition MPs for trying to undermine the faith of the Canadian public in the board, and said:

"I have confidence in the board. We are on the right path. The percentage of increase that has taken place in Canada is comparable with increases in the United States and the United Kingdom, the two countries with which the Canadian transportation system has always been compared."

"The decision of the board is one which is in keeping with the financial requirements of the railways."

HAS CONFIDENCE

CCF and Social Credit members supported Dron's denunciation of the new freight rates, but Clarence Gillis (CCP—Cape Breton South) said Dron's proposal was too drastic. He proposed the House cut out $1 from the board's $634,000 appropriation, as a protest, but fell in.

Transport Minister Lionel Chevrier backed the board's decision. He criticized opposition MPs for trying to undermine the faith of the Canadian public in the board, and said:

Experiment Flops

BEILIN, June 3.—(Reuters)—Believers don't care for whole meat. Only 20 out of 300 tons of Norwegian whale meat bought in September last year have been sold. "This is the end of an experiment," West Berlin officials said.

That Lloydminster Show

You know how they used to say that Olson was the best thing that ever happened to Johnson, and vice versa. Well, the baseball tournament rapidly is becoming the greatest thing that ever happened to western Canada, as witness the feverish preparations going on since in Lloydminster, Lacombe, Indian Head, Sceptre, Regina, Prince Albert and other centres.

Granted they had their baseball tournaments, in the 1920's, particularly. But those were just amateur night jobs alongside today's.

When, for instance, Lloydminster's tournament is broken out of the winter doldrums, the 16 teams scheduled to be on hand will be intent on cutting the big slice of a $4,600 melon.

Say what you would about today's dollar being no more than a pale imitation of what passed for 100 cents in the '20s.

Facts remain that the current batch of balltossers are shooting at a much bigger target.

Charles (Chuck) Henderson, who played plenty of tournament ball in these parts in the Roaring Twenties, was up to the eyes in this very thing last night. "You know," he said, "if a club like Delisle could come up with two or three real rough pitchers, they might win themselves a lot of money this summer."

Henderson, who rarely misses a ball game at Renfrew Park when he's in the city (and that's most of the time) had just returned from a jaunt into Saskatchewan.

Everywhere, the baseball interest at a high pitch. In quite a number of places—Prince Albert was one—preparations were on the way for the staging of a tournament.

The gang at P. A. means to offer a total of $3,500 as a come-on. Not quite as bulky a money package as they'll be shooting for in Lloydminster next week, admittedly. But still worth gambling a few days off from work.

And team in a position to take the prize money in earnest could get pretty fat in the course of a season. But it would mean playing 60 or 70 games over a three month stretch.

And such a schedule demands a strong pitching corps, as Henderson intimated.

The onetime first-sacker with the educated feet can remember when a pitcher good enough to win at any level, but was not above trying his hand at almost any position. This was particularly true if there was an extra buck in it.

In the days of which Henderson spoke Camrose, for instance, put on one of the "rival" tournaments around. But the prize money never ran to much more than seven, eight hundred dollars.

Three or four years ago the tournament idea was reborn at Indian Head. The prize money in Saskatchewan that boasts a population of 1,200 or so.

Today it's on the march across the west.

Who said raise your bet to be a good left-hander? There's gold in 'em, them baseball tournaments.

Citation All Set To Supplant Stymie

ALBANY, Calif., June 3.—(AP)—Citation, the thoroughbred that has a date with destiny, may keep the pact today at Golden Gate Fields.

The freyest and one of the best in the country has only one win to the $200,000 International Golden Gate Mile to become the richest money winning horse in turf history.

Citation's chances to reach the pinnacle of racing fame are considered excellent.

The star of the Calumet Farm will pack his high weight of 126 pounds. Steve Broome will be up against him in the key race in this fixture. Broome, five-pound underweight, has the leader with record of 1:08 1/2 in last Saturday.

Riding Broome will be wily John Longden, the western Canada veteran, who piloted him to the world record. The others expected to go are On Trust, Old Rooster, Esprit de France, and Boomerang Bay. Also named are Fervent, a stablemate of Citation, and Moccasin.

Steve Broome is the leader with $19,843. Citation has $10,019.

FORMER JUNIOR STARS HOME FROM COLLEGE

Ken Johnson and Rae Enright, both well known in junior sports circles hereabouts, have returned to their Edmonton homes.

Johnson and Enright arrived yesterday morning from Glen Rose, North Dakota, after completing the winter session at the University of North Dakota.

Last fall they played with the ND freshman football squad. Johnson also played for Grand Forks America's hockey team.

Sox Newcomers Edge Yanks 6-5

NEW YORK, June 3.—(CP)—Chicago's drooping White Sox, sparked by three recent acquisitions, rose up from their near-cell position in the American league yesterday to whack mighty New York Yankees 6-5 in a fierce 12-inning struggle.

Win boosted Sox into sixth place, but they needed help from the mauling Detroit Tigers who smacked Philadelphia Athletics 16-5 and 8-2 in a twilight double-header to sweep within two games of the league-leading New Yorkers.

NEWCOMERS FACE CHISOLM

George Niekirk, Ed Holbrook and Ray Niekirk, all new to Chicago, marked the White Sox attack, driving in all the Chicago runs.

Johnson batted in three, two of which proved the winning runs. In the 12th inning, with a double to deep left field, George Niekirk paced them in the second game against Athletics, pounding out a home run, triple, double and single, to tie the first time in his major league career he had hit for the cycle.

AMERICAN GAMES AT WASHINGTON

A bad injury occurred in the American game at Washington where St. Louis Browns mauling Washington pitching for 26 hits to take a doubleheader from Senators, 16-5 and 8-2.

Clayton Kershaw, Washington outfielder, suffered a fractured skull in the first game sliding into second base. He will be lost to the club for at least a month.

BASEBALL STREAK

In the national league, Pittsburgh's Francis stepped a new game losing streak as Eddie Hoesli threw a 4-hitter but Bill Mazouza's fresh pitching was helped along by Bill Kinney's 10th homer of the year.

Writer Sees Home Heat As Fireplace

By JOHN GATES
What is a home? Well, to me it's more than a place to hang your hat. It's the institution that binds the family into a unit of love and loyalty. And what physical property of the establishment contributes most to this? It couldn't be gold, for gold is in the bathroom, could it? I set my mind to back-tracking into the homes I have had the privilege of knowing in many lands—and then I got it.

COAL OR PEAT
The big fireplace in the living room with the blazing log or coal or peat? That's it! There's the symbol of the love and loyalty which make the home.
America, of course, used to have plenty of fireplaces, but they were mostly pushed into the background. Still to you who have experienced them—and I have—there is one of the first things you think of when your mind reverts to the old homestead. Let's group about the fireplace that you see today and old and new.

WATCH BURNING LOGS
It was while lying on the rug before the blazing logs that you and some of your guests would remember. Home—how many of you and other words, images used to form around the fireplace. And how mother would with stern standing as you knelt in meditation and old and new.

Romance, adventure and dreams of the future. You remember that young Abraham Lincoln who did his best before the Lincoln log fire, had his first vision of the White House and of the great man he was to do.

But that isn't all the open fireplace means. It is also an emblem of hospitality and has been through the centuries, whether you find it in the mansion of the mighty or in the cottage of the peasant.
REMEMBERS IRELAND
I think back to one of the tenderest of Southern Ireland's bloody Easter Week. I remember the time as an A.P. correspondent, I lost my life, and that of my Irish chauffeur, by inadvertently violating British military law at the height of the fighting. As we approached Kinsale at midnight my driver said:
"It will mean certain death if I drive into the heart of Kinsale town at this time of night."

Weekly Cleaning For Refrigerator

No doubt cleaning the refrigerator is on your weekly plan. But do make it a practice to wash away at once any stain that occurs where food is spilled.
Use lukewarm water and suds. Hot water rises the temperature. The weekly cleaning should include every nook and cranny, with warm water. Remove grating and shelves; immerse in hot suds.

Movable Wall Is Newest

If your home is small, you can make it seem more spacious with movable walls. You'll get away from stationary walls that cut your home into cubbyholes—and be able to use space in different ways at different times.
To make a movable wall, hinge either shutters, screen doors, or lowered panels together, then fasten them to a stationary wall.
You can try this movable wall between your living and dining areas—and have one room or two, as you wish. Or you can use it to screen off part of your bedroom for the baby.
Or let it separate the eating area from the kitchen.
Here's one such movable wall that makes three rooms—living room, dining room, and kitchen—out of one. See for yourself how it works.

How to Figure On Painting Job
In estimating the quantity of paint to be used, the painter of a house is better to figure liberally than to run short of material.
For this reason no deduction is made for the area of windows and doors.
The number of square feet of surface to be painted is determined by measuring in feet the distance around the house and multiplying by the height in feet to the eaves line.
The area of a gable is found by measuring the width of its base to half of the height from the eaves to the peak. Add this to the area of the main walls.
(Gables, trim and other extra work should be figured out for extra cost.)
In the final period of the house.

ARRIVED AT HOME
In due course we arrived at the driver's little two-room home. His wife threw her arms about his neck, with fervent repetitions of "The Saints be praised," while two small girls cling to him. Then they retired to their room, and after the manner of the Irish, offered me the hospitality their poor wood-affected place is able to give. I took the couch before the open fire of the living room.
That fire, built of sweet smelling peat was a godsend. It brought not only warmth of body but warmth of soul. For it was the symbol of a happy home.

EASY WAY TO REPAIR LAWN ALSO BEST WAY

The easiest way to improve a lawn is also the best way. You begin when the ground is soft enough to allow a pointed roller to be thrust into it six inches deep.
First, spread over the lawn area a balanced commercial plant food at the rate of four pounds to 100 square feet.
During the spring thaw, when the soil alternately freezes at night, and thaws during the day, the surface is pierced by tiny holes extending several inches deep. This condition is commonly called "honeycombed."
"HONEYCOMBED"
When plant food and grass seed are spread on a "honeycombed" surface both find their way down into the soil. Farmers say the seed "muds in." By sowing at this stage you avoid the necessity of loosing the soil of bare spots, and top dressing the seed, and also avoid any danger of the plant food burning the grass.
The early start gives your new grass plants a chance to grow up in the cool, moist weather of early spring.
Having fed your lawn its first meal and sown seed with a minimum labor, your next saving comes from not rolling your lawn.
Research has established that grass does not thrive in compact soil. It needs a loose, porous condition, which a heavy roller makes.
If you try to level off the lawn surface with a roller, harm may result. The only reason for rolling the lawn is to press down the seed and against the subsoil, from which it may have been separated by frost heaving.
There has been plenty of such heaving this year, but use a light roller, and wait until the soil is soft.

Foundation Sills Basis of Joists

Omission Of Sills Not Recommended By Builders

Foundation sills are planks or timbers which rest upon the foundation. They are the base for the walls and first-floor joists. Sills are sometimes omitted to allow the floor-joists to rest directly on the foundation.

ELEVATOR 'PILOT RIDES' IN COCKPIT

Elevator operators can see better and don't interfere with passenger traffic in a new elevator that has a control compartment built into one side. The compartment is a foot above the floor level to provide better visibility.

Door openings on the new elevators are about one and a half feet wide, two feet wider than standard doors in store elevators.

The elevators have been installed in Jordan Marsh's new department store in Boston.

Cliche Rooms Are Pitfalls In Houses

There are pitfalls to watch for in decorating large homes just as there are in small houses and one of them is what might be called cliche rooms.

Take the study or den, for example. It pops up in its wood-paneled, book-shelf elegance, in homes where dark work is limited to writing, checking, and reading activities are bounded on one side by the morning paper and on the other by the latest picture magazine.

Nothing wrong with having a small, cozy room with a fireplace but it might as well be decorated according to the family's present mode of life.

DRINK IN DEN

What many modern families do in the den is drink cocktails, a pleasant pastime that doesn't necessarily have to be carried on amidst shelves full of unopened bottles. Why not build cubbyholes to display choice vintage bottles instead?

The rumormonger is another perennial in the good-looking suburban home. It's usually a consciously quaint room, replete with books, board games, shuffleboard, marbles, and so on.

But here again, the room is often tragically wasted. People don't play the active games. They sit and read or play canasta, which can be done as well in the living room.

WHAT RECREATION?

It would be better to figure out just what the family's main party recreation is, and decorate a room around that.

If they like to listen to music, have a good phonograph and some recording equipment as the centre of attraction.

If they play table tennis have a good light over the table and leave plenty of room around it for the enthusiasts will bless you for that.

And don't worry too much about clutter as such. Arrange your rooms to suit your needs and you'll avoid them.

Proper Figures For Window Box

A window box should be about eight inches deep, ten inches wide and as long as you want. Use inch lumber for your window box, and don't forget to drill a number of holes in the bottom of the box for drainage. The soil in a window box should be very rich, so use a good loam containing plenty of humus. Remember that the soil in the box will have to nourish a larger number of plants per square foot than in the garden bed or borders. When you fill the window box or turn with soil, leave the soil about an inch or an inch and a half from the top to allow plenty of room for watering. Later on in the summer you will want to add top dressing of rich compost from time to time.

Use Turpentine To Remove Wax

A varnish manufacturer offers the following recipe for the removal of an old coating of wax from a varnished floor, before revarnishing.

Go over the surface with a rag saturated with hot turpentine and remove all the wax possible. Go over it again with cold turpentine, washed or kerosene. The new coat of varnish is then applied.

A satisfactory way to heat turpentine is to put a pint or so in a can or pail and set it inside another pail filled with hot water. Keep changing the water as it cools for more hot water. Be sure not to heat turpentine over an open flame.

Unique Poker

A fabulous poker for fireplace or outdoor barbecue is a home-constructed barbecue. It's now being marketed. Your own initials, made of oxidized bronze, are the brand mark. With polished bronze handle, steel shaft, and leather thong for hanging handle your brand is at home with any two initials.

TWO FLOWERS RATED TOPS

Have you a favorite flower for your garden? You guess it's the peunia.

Recently the National Garden Bureau of the United States produced statistics on the sales of flower seeds there. The popularity of the peunia was proven beyond a doubt.

Headed the list all across the country. And in order of their demand by the home gardener, here are the other nine best sellers: Zinnia, gladiolus, geranium, Marigold, Aster, Sweet-pea, Snapdragon, Nasturtium, and Petunia.

Annuals, Larkspur and Sweet Alyssum.

Pipe Wrench Hints Given

You can't make a mistake with a pipe wrench; it won't work at all unless you put it on the right way. It bites best when the pipe is at the center of the jaws.

Use it only on round objects, never on hexagon or square nuts. It pays to buy quality wrenches; soft or poorly machined wrenches are an irritation. Indeed, Get wrenches that are plated so as to be rustproof; rust ruins many tools than almost anything else.

Give your wrenches a kerosene bath occasionally and wipe them dry. Keep your hands free of grease and dirt. Greasy hands slip.

One last caution: When using a wrench, don't hammer on the handle to break a tight nut loose, and don't slip a length of pipe over the handle to increase leverage. Something will break. Get a larger wrench instead.

If the nut is rusted on, soak it with kerosene or penetrating oil. Let it stand a couple of hours, then use it to work with your wrench.

New flowers are always interesting, but no doubt there are hints in the old-timers which would be new to you. It is fun to try some of these each year.

Plaster Cracking Is Often Complained Of

One of the most common building complaints is plaster cracking. As a matter of fact it is one of the least important factors in home maintenance.

There are bound to be some slight plaster cracks. The natural settling of the house will cause them. Many will close by themselves.

One thing to remember: See that there are no leaks around doors or windows which will allow rain to drive in and spoil plaster. This sort of cracking and deterioration is serious, but it is not an ordinary occurrence.

You can clean painted plaster walls with mild soap or with many commercial cleaning preparations. Do not use anything on plaster which you would not use on wood.

Protect plaster around stove, sink, etc., by wood covering or some other device to prevent splashing, excessive wetting and soiling.

If you cannot hang pictures and mirrors from a mauling use very fine needle-pointed tacks for this purpose.

You will find that dipping nails into hot water before driving them into plaster will prevent chipping the wall.

If the plaster does become chipped, repair it quickly to avoid further breaking.

In painting plaster a good rule to remember is this: If you can't light a match by scratching it across the plaster it is too wet to paint.

Protect plaster around stove, sink, etc., by wood covering or some other device to prevent splashing, excessive wetting and soiling.

Japan May Get Back Some Isles

Some Officials Say Not All Essential To Defence Plans

By Edward V. Roberts
Exclusive To The Bulletin

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(UP)—Some top U.S. officials now favor the return to Japan of some of her pre-war island possessions, it was learned yesterday.

Russia Holds Timber Fate For Britain

LONDON, June 3.—(CP)—Canada's chances of selling softwood lumber to Britain appear to depend on Russia.

Source in the building trade reported that a crucial timber shortage is in the making here, but added that Britain is reluctant to spare dollars for increased supplies from Canada.

Sir Edward McKinnon, Britain's timber controller, now is in Moscow for negotiations on softwood lumber. The government understood that the discussions will prove fruitful, since negotiations were started on Russian initiative.

If Moscow comes through, Britain may be able to switch dollars from Canadian timber to relieve other shortages.

IN NEWSPAPERS

Meanwhile, some softwood is arriving from Canada. Board of Trade officials declined today to disclose how much or what future shipments are envisaged.

Two British newspapers discussed timber today. The Conservative Daily Mail, commenting on recent statements that the country's dollar position is improving, predicted a front-page article that more dollars may be provided for Canadian timber to speed up the housing drive.

But it hedged a little, saying the dollars might be used up elsewhere if Britain negotiated a big lumber contract with Moscow.

Works Minister Richard Stokes, discussing the housing position in the House of Commons yesterday, said timber stocks have fallen below the safety level of 20,000 standards. (A standard is 1,200 board feet.)

LULLINGTON, Kent, England.—(CP)—A Roman mosaic has been unearthed in the local park here.

Bearers of High Titles Met With Curious Fate

By Richard K. O'Malley

FRANKFURT, June 3.—(AP)—A title of nobility in Germany today is about as useful as a punched metal ticket.

This used to be a kind of pomp and circumstance. The pomp is gone and circumstances are tough.

A prince or a duke or a count used to eat pretty high on the hog. Nowadays most of the nobles live on the bread-and-butter level.

The war and the hard times which followed put the nobles' business on the slide. It has been going downhill ever since.

Some of the old nobility seems to be doing all right. It is a safe bet, though, that the rest would just as soon be plain Gus Schmidt with a steady job.

German nobles did not make a good thing of the foreign exchange. A peasant, however, never set any dinner tables.

HINDENBURG SCION
Take the case of Oscar Von Hindenburg, son of old Paul Von Hindenburg, once Reich president.

Oscar is 67 years old now and makes his living in a small village near Lauenburg. Broads claim to dress like you. These include having coat and trousers.

It is reported that Prince Alexander Ferdinand von Hessen, a grandson of Wilhelm II, makes his living selling textiles and hats.

"They say Duke Karl Alexander von Wuertemberg has entered a disorder near Heilbronn in the U.S. Zone and now is known only as 'Heinrich Odo'."

Some of the gold brad boys who threw in with Hitler seem to have been swallowed up by the times.

These include such people as Duke Karl Eduard von Sachsen-Coburg and Gotha, a German ex-Nazi court found him 15,000 marks, and his whereabouts is unknown today.

Nobody seems to know what has become of the Duke Nikolaus von Schwerin, on-line leader of a Nazi horse troop.

VICTIMS OF NAZIS
Those of the nobility who openly opposed the Nazis were quickly laid by the heels. For example, the last known address of Prince Ferdinand Leopold von Treussart was in 1941. He was then in the grip of a Nazi concentration camp at Dachau.

Many of the old nobles don't care to talk about themselves or their friends. They feel the less said the better.

Prince Otto von Harnack, grandson of the "Iron Chancellor" now is living on his own income.

WELSH-BORN Canadian exercise man Owen T. Jones, holder of two University of Alberta degrees, was admitted to the Alberta Bar today by Mr. Justice Hugh John Macdonald. Newest of Alberta's lawyers is indicated by C. H. Grant, KC, to whom he has been articled for six months.

Secretary of State Dean Acheson disclosed last January that the United States, "at the proper time," will ask the United Nations for a trusteeship over the Ryukyu Islands involved in some of the Japanese chain, stretching from Formosa to the four main islands of Japan. Okinawa, now a bastion in the U.S. Pacific defense line, would not be affected.

Some of Acheson's advisers indicated that they do not consider American control of the entire chain essential to American security. They believe the trusteeship can be confined to Okinawa and outlying islands required for auxiliary bases, radar stations and other purposes.

TWO TO JAPAN

They suggested that the northernmost islands, including the relatively large islands of Tanaka, Shima and Yaku Shima, could be turned over to Japan.

Under terms of the Japanese surrender, the victors to the United States Japan's sovereignty to the four main islands of Honshu, Hokkaido, Kyushu and Shikoku, and such minor islands as we determine.

The American attitude on these and other issues which must be settled in any Japanese peace treaty is viewed by a conviction among top state department officials that Japan must emerge as a strongly anti-Communist and Western nation.

WINNING FAVOR

Consequently, the overall American position on the peace settlement—now being hammered out—apparently will be designed to win as much favor with the Japanese people as possible without infringing upon American security requirements.

Few, if any, U.S. observers believe that Russia or Communist China will be parties to treaty negotiations in the foreseeable future. The best that is hoped for is a "separate peace" with the non-Communist China.

The Japanese foreign ministry stated yesterday that such a separate peace would be acceptable.

It apparently has sufficient funds for an extensive program to keep him comfortably.

Old Crown Prince Hirohito von Bayern, who lives in relative comfort in his Bavarian castle, has been reported to have recently contributed money from his birthday presents to build small homes near his castle.

Count George von Dasselwitz-Behr was police chief of Hamburg in 1947. He was tried for alleged war crimes and acquitted. Then the Nazis extradited him. He has not been heard from since.

Talks On UN Control Put Off Until June 12

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. June 3.—(AP)—The United Nations Trusteeship Council agreed yesterday to postpone until June 12 its discussion on plans for UN control of Jerusalem.

The council must decide at its current session whether it should try to impose international rule over Jerusalem or tell the general assembly in September that the UN plan is unworkable.

Jerusalem, which occupies Jerusalem in separate sectors, are against the plan.

Medical Team Gives New Hope To Addicts

By Alton J. Hakeswille
NEW YORK, June 3.—(AP)—Hormone injections can break up alcoholism and drug addiction, two physicians reported today.

They said evidence that both alcoholics and drug addicts suffer from the same trouble—lack of impaired adrenal glands. Sleeping pills addicts even show the same mental pattern as alcoholics.

In both additions, the glands apparently don't produce enough of the hormones that come from the outer covering (cortex) of the adrenal glands, they said. The injections overcome this lack.

The hormone used is ACTH, adrenal cortical extract.

The report was made by Dr. Harold Lovell and John W. Tintera of Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospital, New York, in the American Journal of Medicine.

Geriatrics is the medical specialization in problems and diseases of old age.

The hormone injections "eliminate the torturing craving for alcohol in alcoholics and learn significantly the recurrent craving for alcohol," they said.

The physicians urged a triple treatment for alcoholism. One, the hormone injections. Second, a diet low in starches and sugar, rich in proteins and medium in fats. And third, joining Alcoholics Anonymous for moral support.

Alcoholism is neither a purely mental or purely physical disease. Dr. Lovell and Dr. Tintera said. They called it a disease with both mental and physical sides that act and react on one another.

Calgary Finds Itself Without Any Sandbags

WINNIPEG has been asked to provide Alberta with any surplus sandbags. Premier Manning said today.

There is no need for alarm, it is only a precautionary measure," Mr. Manning said in an interview. "We expect a very close check on the situation at Calgary where floods could occur due to the excessive amount of snow still in the mountains."

He said several thousand sandbags were sent to Winnipeg last month and are now in "practically none left in Alberta."

Report on Living Costs

Cost of living index remained stationary at 164.0 during April, according to Ottawa experts.

Never knew what those figures meant until I went to the butcher store. Then it was clear that 164.0 is what you pay for the Sunday roast only they forgot to put the dollar sign in front and left off the second naught for the cents.

It's sure a comfort to read that while meat has gone up slightly, (they could say slightly awful), fuel and light are down.

It's dandy to save all that gas and coal in the hot months. A guy doesn't need a light on each between 11 p.m. either in the month of June.

One touch of wigo makes the whole town Kinsmen. That's what it seemed like at the Kinsmen carnival last night.

I dropped over to take a look with sportswriter Dick (balldribble) Beddoes.

These Kinsmen, who do a lot of good with their Tie Christmas Seals sales and other projects put on a bingo game similar in most respects to the one staged by the Lions' Club last week.

By that I mean they give you cards with numbers on them and lots of beans.

Balderdash Beddoes and I had a lot of fun but Beddoes is a bit naive.

After he showed his last thin dime in front of his card he whispered:

"I think there must be some mistake about my card. Most of the numbers the man is calling are not on my card."

I could have made the same complaint.

Hard-Working Crew

Working hard, taking our money, were such well-known characters on Kinsmen Archie Lewis, lawyer Bill Haddad, Reno Jack Brodie, Los Vegas George Poole, City Assessor (six-gun) Jack MacDunn, foreman George Decker and black-jack Oscar Purn.

The big show will be on again tonight at 97 street and Jasper. I wish someone would finance Dick Beddoes for tonight's game. I haven't got a bean left.

Jack Kemp, who broke into the newspaper game here in the early 1930's is visiting the old home town from sunny California.

Jack's been a member of the Stockton Record news staff for the last 35 years in the news desk.

A good many Edmonton oldtimers will remember Jackie's father, the late Chester Kemp, prominent Edmonton sports promoter and druggist away back in those golden 1920's.

Jack is currently visiting with his uncle, well-known Edmonton businessman Walter S. "Shorty" Campbell.

Kathleen Corbett, a cute little redhead, who works at Locators Ltd. real estate office, says boxing champion Gentleman Jim Corbett was her great uncle.

The told her how the same thing but he said she was just pulling his leg. I thought that was kind of funny because her boss's name is Leger.

A frugal goodnight to all and especially to people who study cost of living indexes.

Early Clearing Seen For Paper Mill Site

Some work on clearing a site for a $14,000,000 pulp and paper mill just east of Edmonton may begin in a week or two.

This was announced today by R. O. Sweeney, Montreal financier, who heads a syndicate planning to build the mill on optimum property close to the Imperial Oil Ltd. refinery near Clover bar.

Mr. Sweeney said he is busy now negotiating contracts for electric power.

He said he is having talks with electric officials, representatives of the Calgary Power Company and others.

He said Mr. Sweeney "I still hope to get a start on the project proper within a month or so."

The general contract for the mill has not yet been let. Mr. Sweeney said.

Neither has the exact site been selected.

The syndicate has options on

One Girl Contestant For Judging Of Weeds

Over 120 boys and one girl entered a grain and weed judging competition at Parkland Farm yesterday afternoon.

The competition was part of the program of the 3rd annual farm young people's conference being held at the university.

Lone girl was 16-year-old Jean Pyster, daughter of a Blackfoot farmer.

Not in the least perturbed at the sex ratio, Jean sat down in the farm's laboratory and studied three samples of barley, oats and wheat.

With a professional air, she raked over the dishes of grain and decided the category in which they fell.

Winners of the contest will be

Hostellers Planning Two More City District Camps

Edmonton's Youth Hostellers will soon be hitting the highways for their favorite camping spots during the summer months.

There are about 50 members of the Edmonton Division of the International Union of the Canadian Youth Hostellers.

This non-profit organization provides shelter, guidance and encouragement for all persons interested in membership.

"The idea of Youth Hostels is to get young people out to see their own country as inexpensively as possible," said Bob Cotte, chairman of the Edmonton division.

Each year, for the past eight years in Edmonton, hostellers have cycled or hiked out to their hostel camps.

The Edmonton Division has one hostel camp, Lake Eden, about 30 miles north of Edmonton.

Construction of a second camp is underway at Fort Saskatchewan and plans for a third at Elk Island are being discussed. This would enable hostellers to make an all-around trip to all three points.

At present, long trips are made to Lake Eden, where two camps, one for boys, another for girls, are at their disposal. Groups are usually made up of about 20 persons.

MIXED DRINKING IN ALBERTA TALKED AGAIN

What little leaders (read "Alberta's favorite perennial") the question of "mixed" drinking in Edmonton and Calgary beverage rooms is apparently going to be the fore again.

The Alberta Provincial Council of Liquor Control, following a recent three-day meeting in Lethbridge, will "present" the provincial government once more to hold a plebiscite in the two cities on the question of "re-establishing" dry and "wet" areas.

The resolution demanded the "elimination of this most contentious problem."

Alleged Thief Is Committed To High Court

James R. Johnston, alleged jewel thief, has been committed for trial to Supreme Court on a charge of escaping from custody May 19.

Appearing in police court yesterday, he was also remanded to Tuesday for trial on a charge of theft.

Johnston faces a charge of theft of two rings valued at $2,800 from Henry Birks (Western store) near March 15. He will be tried in Supreme Court on this charge and that of escaping from custody near Wednesday.

CNR Worker Retiring After 25-Year Service

Peter Isenro, 11410-88 street, employee of Canadian National Railways for past 25 years, today announced his retirement on June 30.

Mr. Isenro began working for the railway company in 1925 in the truck department at various points and in 1945 was transferred to the car department at Edmonton.

Since that time he has been a car hiker in CNR's Calgary yard.

He plans to remain in the city after his retirement.

Patients Get Free Flowers

Edmonton florists will make Shriners Day tomorrow a happy occasion for hospital patients.

As members of the Edmonton branch of the Allied Florists and Growers of Canada Incorporated, they will donate hundreds of bouquets to chronically and terminally ill patients in all city hospitals.

The flower gifts will also go to patients of veterans' and children's homes in the city, chairman of the branch, Thomas Kerrison, said today.

Edmonton is the only Canadian city whose florists unite in donating flowers on National Shriners Day. This is the fifth year flower growers and dealers have marked the day.

The bouquets are almost all daily grown and are attractively arranged in containers. Floral delivery vans will deliver the bouquets to the hospitals, where members of the Beta Sigma sorority will distribute them to the various wards.

LONG SESSION FOR OTTAWA

Senator James A. MacKinnon arrived in Edmonton last night by TCA for a two-day "personal business" visit.

The Alberta senator, who still holds a non-partisan cabinet post, predicted that both houses of parliament would remain in session pretty well up to July 1.

He plans to fly back to Ottawa tomorrow or Monday.

Plan Survey Over Health

Fast-finding survey of health services for arthritis, crippled children and asthma will be conducted during the next three months by the health division of the Edmonton Council of Social Agencies.

Decision to make the study was reached at a recent meeting of the division. Committees will be appointed to determine what services are available locally to arthritis, crippled children and asthma, and what overloading of services, if any, exists. Further needs will also be determined.

REORGANIZED

Health division of the council was recently reorganized under the chairmanship of Dr. Herbert Melnick.

Appointments to the division executive include Helen Penhale, director of the school of nursing at the University of Alberta; Bill M. Murphy, of the Charles Camell hospital; Margaret Fraser, of the hospital; and W. E. Millon, executive director of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind.

Mr. Paul Melnick, of the Canadian Council of Arthritis; and Harold Dill, director of the Council of Social Agencies.

Too Many Frills Hampering Population At High Schools

Too many frills in present day educational system are proving a handicap to university students.

Comparison with the high school graduates of 15 to 20 years ago would be decidedly unfavorable to the present system.

BRIGHT SIDE

High School Exams Start On June 23

Nothing bright about this for some people.

About 16,500 Alberta high school students are lining up for departmental examinations which start June 23.

About 10,000 will write five grade nine subjects; 6,500 grade 12 students will be tested on one or more subjects. Grade 12 exams start June 25 grade nine on June 28.

Attractive sight in Edmonton today is the red and white tulips bordering walks leading to the residential area of quiet on a busy street.

Most can't get eye-catcher on Jasper avenue today isn't a well-travelled area, but a can of paint apparently crashing through hardware store's plate glass window.

Torrents of paint splashing from the car, together with vivid cracks, catch the eye of practically every passerby.

Effectiveness of the stunt as a paint-sale promoter is evident in the comments of passersby.

"Next time anybody decides to paint some cars in a paint-splatter campaign, maybe they'd better use better paint, or more of it."

All the effort that went into painting boulevard curbs on Jasper west seems to have been lost to ravages of the weather these past two weeks.

Not much paint there today.

Old sign on the employment board.

National Employment Service offers can't hire more men help. Instead, when a staff replacement is needed, an official said, the little has to be done through the Civil Service Commission in Ottawa.

RCA Victor Markets Long-Playing Records

The best record news of the week is RCA Victor's entry into the long-playing record field in Canada.

Ex-Vancouver Man Starring On U.K. Radio

By EDWIN S. JOHNSON

LONDON, June 3.—(CP)—A rising star on radio, screen and stage, Vancouver-born Bernard Braden, believes Canada has been hiding her light under a bushel far too long, especially in the field of entertainment.

He thinks it is time something was done about it. Braden, who arrived in London from Toronto a little more than a year ago, and has taken British audiences by storm with his versatility, says Canada's entry into the big time of films and stage is long overdue.

"We definitely have the acting talent, efficient directors and first-class writers," Braden says. "All we have a country that can supply the right atmosphere and proper setting is most almost every story demand."

"I am reasonably certain men with the financial means and shrewd confidence in Canada could be found to put the idea across. But something should be done before those with the required know-how get too old or by necessity are forced into other fields."

With his wife, Barbara, who also began her career in Vancouver, Braden is currently featured in two radio variety programs, in television, and plays one of the major roles in Tennessee Williams' long-run production "A Streetcar Named Desire" at the Aldwych Theatre.

Among his many accomplishments, Braden has written a series of radio skits, one-act plays and so-called "soap operas." But his greatest ambition is to find a baker for a serious play he has just completed.

Ukrainian Orthodox Monastery For Grimsby

GRIMSBY, Ont., June 3.—(CP)—A Ukrainian Orthodox monastery, first of its kind in a mile west of here.

The historic John Hewitt homestead is undergoing renovation and alteration to form the monastery, a museum and, later, an old people's home and orphanage.

Three rooms in the front of the property have been set aside as a public museum. Art treasures from the Ukraine, some of them smuggled out under the noses of the Nazis and Russians, are on view here where they can show Canada an art form which has remained a home far from home.

Overseeing the decoration work is Prof. J. Kulchycki, famed as one of Europe's leading portrait painters. Formerly chief decorator of the Kiev opera house (for 12 years) he barely escaped abroad of the Russians. After spending time in displaced persons' camps in Europe he managed to reach Canada.

PAINTING MURALS With him he brought a number of his own paintings and has been busy painting murals on the dining room and chapel walls. In the chapel, the murals are biblical scenes in the dining room.

Enterprise Irving Mihal, music director of the "Big Hawk Show," has a law business venture. He is selling pocket-sized dictionaries, initially in Los Angeles street cars.

FAIR OF DOGS have been sent to radio station CJCA here by master of ceremonies Stan Francis of Share the Wealth program in connection with contest now running. "What Kind of a Dog Should Stan Francis Buy?" Dogs are gift to be used for local charity project.

EDINBURGH'S FESTIVE SEATS HAVE BIG SALE

Recent volume of tickets—$174,000—have been sold for this year's Edinburgh International Festival of Music and Drama. Popularity of the August 29-September 10 festival is worldwide, overseas requests for tickets amounting to 65% of the total with some London agents.

Already nearly half the available tickets have been sold and requests are pouring into Festival Society office at the rate of 250 a day. In addition, travel tours from London to Scotland for more than 100,000 over this year, report travel agents.

Eskimos Get Art Samples

OTTAWA, June 3.—(CP)—Eskimo and Indian children in the Arctic will get a chance to study Canadian art from paintings by artist A. Y. Jackson.

This fall the multi-media group will present a special symphonic band concert at Convocation Hall, under the direction of WVO Carl Frieberg.

DVA Patients Are Entertained By Volunteers

DVA hospital patients at Newburn and Government House were entertained this week by volunteer troupes of ward entertainers.

Next Wednesday, patients at the Royal Naval Hospital, will be entertained by volunteer performers from Edmonton. A dance orchestra and group of about 25 hostesses will visit the institution.

British Group Offers Prize For Composition

Arts Council of Great Britain announces it will offer 200 pounds (about $25) to a young composer for composition of a work in a concertante style.

The piece will be in competition with the Festival of Britain, 1961 and will be selected by judges Dr. Arthur Bliss, Eric Coates, John Elgar, Constant Lambert and Dr. Thomas Wood.

The competition is open to composers of either sex who are resident subjects in the U.K. Common-law, Canadian or British subjects residing outside the Commonwealth.

Singers Auditioned By Mary Garden

NEW YORK, June 3.—(UP)—Former opera star Mary Garden will tour U.S. this fall to audition promising young singers for her new opera house, it was announced yesterday.

The training program is being sponsored by National Arts Foundation.

Theatre Group Offers Big Play-Writing Prize

LONDON (Ontario) Little Theatre is offering $1,000 as first prize in a play-writing competition.

The drama group hopes to encourage play-writing in Canada through its competition to select the best full-length play.

Only Canadian citizens resident in the Dominion are eligible to compete, and all scripts must be written in English.

Plays submitted must have any subject or theme and may be Canadian in scene, story or characters. Two, three or four-act plays may be submitted, provided the playing time of each is from two to two-and-one-half hours.

Original work rather than dramatization of another work will be given first consideration. Plays submitted must not have been previously produced or published or entered in another play-writing competition.

Submissions are to be made under pseudonym, with the author's name and address contained in a separate envelope attached to a copy of the play.

DOROTHY BLACKWELL GARDNER

Broadway Singing Star Revisits Native Alberta

By Irene Boyerman, Bulletin Staff Writer

Musical comedy—there's nothing like it! That's the opinion of Broadway singing star, Dorothy Blackwell Gardner, former Edmonton girl who made her name for herself in the United States 15 years ago, and has kept it.

Born in 1935 Mrs. Gardner, then Dorothy Blackwell, first for Chicago to study singing. Since then she has been back to Edmonton twice to sing in Edmonton Opera Society productions.

Light opera is Mrs. Gardner's favorite but her latest performance will be with Milton Hertz in a musical show, "Spring in Brazil".

Mrs. Gardner likes "Carmen," her first time in 1935, and again in 1940. Although she has never sung the role in New York, she did play it in Chicago.

EDMONTON TO CHICAGO Born in Calgary, Mrs. Gardner left Canada when she was only a year old when her parents returned to England. Her early school years were spent in the old country, but in 1921 the Blackwell family returned to Canada and came to Edmonton.

In Chicago she studied with Dr. Frank Laird Walter and later Mary Garden. She studied with Mrs. Frances Alder, whose husband was at that time manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company.

Mrs. Gardner began singing in night clubs and from that went into musical comedy. It was at this time she met her husband, a New York businessman, and married. Since then she has continued with her music as an enjoyable hobby, one on which she does not need to depend for her living.

In addition to her work in musical comedy, Mrs. Gardner was soloist at New York's Christ Church, and has sung many times at Radio City Music Hall.

Mrs. Gardner will return to New York and her career on Broadway next week.

Groucho Stars In Quiz Persecution

Free Wheeling Performance Shows Real Marx Talents

By Maury Soward, Bulletin Staff Writer

The unique comic talent of Groucho Marx won deserved recognition in Variety magazine's show management awards for 1949-50.

In awarding a special citation to the Marxes' recovered sense of humor, Wednesday night CBS show, "You Bet Your Life" (heard locally at 7 p.m.), the magazine struck a ringing blow for freedom from script-writers.

"His quiz format has crashed into the favorite show columns primarily because of its off-the-cuff ad lib nature," it said. In that department the Groucho has no peer.

Groucho's technique, as those fortunate enough to hear him on KSL know, is to pick a pair of contestants who appear ostensibly to be a stake of money on their ability to answer Groucho's questions.

In the process, Groucho subjects them to the most entertaining light-hearted torture heard on radio.

But his program isn't quite as spontaneous as Variety claims. Groucho tape-records his program in advance and uses tape recordings that will fit in his half-hour program. The unrewarding ones are cut from the final show. You had the CBS denied import Groucho for the Dominion network.

Latest quiz program announced by the networks are specially tailored for young listeners and for children.

At 10:15 a.m. Robin Ferguson presents the first of three programs of Canadian writers for children. It is followed at 10:30 a.m. by a quiz show of sacred song music intended for children.

The third program, at 10:45 a.m., is a quiz show for adults. It is hosted by Peter Caplan. It will deal with the lives of the great artists. Narrator Joe Dando will tell Sunday the story of Thomas Aquinas.

For music-lovers, a welcome note: "The Little Symphonies" from Montreal, now heard Sunday at 6:30 a.m.

Leduc, who won an honorable mention in the latest Canadian Radio Festival, features the works of 18th century composers who contributed to the development of the symphony form, but especially includes more recent compositions as well.

Card Is Unique

Alan Dale, CBS "Sing Again" host, has a new calling card. It's in the shape of a mid-sized tag with the card carrier's name, address, phone and other information.

Government Of Australia Plans Own TV Service

The Australian government recently announced plans for establishing a television service. It has been decided not to license commercial programs, but the medium will be retained as a national service. Programming is not expected to start before 1962.

First stage in development will be setting-up of transmitters in each of six state capitals, to serve about 60 per cent of the potential audience. Regional transmitters will later extend the service. The adoption of a 625-line screen has been decided.

BRIDGE

You Can Play Bridge If You Can Count

By Oswald Jacoby

People sometimes say to me, "It's easy for you to play bridge. After all, you're a mathematician." Actually, there is nothing in this. They might just as well say that I can play bridge because I live in Texas. Mind you, I have nothing to say against mathematicians or against my home state of Texas. I simply wish to point out that the mathematics in bridge is usually just a simple matter of counting up to 7.

For example, here is a hand that called for a little mathematics. An

Whist Drives

Everyone is welcome to the whist drive to be held tonight at the home of Mrs. Knowles, 1045 - 74 avenue.

Proceeds will aid the building fund of St. John's church. Games will get under way at 8 p.m.

For three rounds, South pounced on the third diamond with the ten of hearts, noting with interest that West could not follow the suit. Because of this, it was clear that East had started with six diamonds.

South's next step was to draw three rounds of trumps, ending in the dummy. East followed to all three rounds of trumps, while West discarded on the third round of trumps. At this point, therefore, declarer knew that East had begun the hand with nine red cards, and only four black ones.

The next step was to lead a spade from dummy, since the contract could be easy if East happened to hold the ace of spades. When South played the king of spades, West won with the ace and returned the jack of spades.

Since East followed suit on two rounds of spades, South knew that two of East's four black cards were spades. It was clear that he could not have more than two clubs in his hand. This meant that West had four clubs.

This information made the rest quite simple. South led the ten of clubs to dummy's ace and returned the deuce of clubs to his king. East played his two aces and clubs on these tricks. South could then safely finesse through West for the jack of clubs. The finesse of the nine of clubs naturally held, and South was able to discard the losing spade on dummy's queen of clubs.

The play of this hand shows a little counting, but needed no mathematics beyond simple arithmetic. You have to be willing to think to play fine bridge, but your name doesn't have to be Albert Einstein!

This little cream-colored convertible is an Ottawa crippled citizens' answer for a wheel chair. Electrically run, the small car is driven home each night where the motor is plugged into a wall socket and recharged. Then it is all set to go again, up to 3 miles in an hour.

SEEKING PENSIONS
Latest joint of this unique machine set its owner to join the delegation in Ottawa of the Canadian Association of Invalids. This three-year-old organization is seeking government pensions for chronic invalids and crippled persons.

Local measures to assist these people who cannot provide for themselves have failed. And the association feels that they do deserve help. It points out how a crippled child will receive family allowance until he is 16. Then while others go on to gainful employment, helpless child can look forward to precarious existence until he reaches 70. If he has endured his illness that long he is granted old age pension.

Delegation to the Federal Government met May 21 to 24. Of the 22 delegates, at least 15 were incurables, many of whom attended the meetings in wheel chairs. Strain was too much for several and they were forced to leave before the business was concluded.

Included in the representatives' briefs was a petition from 21,000 Canadians in favor of the pension scheme. Realization of the plan

Nowadays there's a little doubt cast on the story because some people have the idea that the violin had not been invented in Nero's day. Judge Moves To Strengthen Competition

NEW YORK, June 3.—(AP)—Federal Judge John Knox refused today to order a breakup of the Aluminum Company of America industrial empire.

Huling in an anti-trust proceeding started by the United States government 13 years ago, Knox did, however, give the Justice Department five more years to raise some phases of its petition.

He also ordered several injunctions which he said would sharpen competition in the aluminum industry.

The government has been trying to force ALCOA to get rid of some of its holdings so as to expand competition in the industry.

ALCOA filed a counter-petition asking that it be freed of a monopoly classification given it in 1936. The judge directed that United States stockholders in ALCOA, and in Aluminum, Limited, a Canadian company, dispose of their holdings in one or the other.

He said Arthur E. and Edward Davis, Jr. and six men members of the Mellon family had received the stock of the Canadian firm's shares.

Aluminum, Limited, supplies aluminum ingot and bar for many manufacturing plants in Canada, Japan, Switzerland and five other countries.

Knox said his decision in this matter was obtained in part by Canadian common law evidence competitor of ALCOA.

Atomic Shell Increases Psychological Warfare

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(UP)—The United States is developing an atomic artillery shell that could greatly strengthen this nation's position in the cold war with Russia.

A high defence department official emphasized that the shell is still in the development stage but predicted that it would be produced eventually. He also said that scientists would produce atomic warheads for guided missiles.

Top military planners have been hoping that the atomic warheads could be adapted for use by ground forces because of the great potentialities for strengthening western European defenses.

SOVIET ARMY
Such weapons would permit the Russians to counterbalance the giant Soviet army and air force with much smaller numbers.

The disclosure by the defence department official led to a speculation that the scientists are making progress on a wide variety of new atomic weapons.

Secretary of Defence Louis Johnson recently revealed that this nation is at work on such projects for both tactical and strategic purposes.

Bicycle Club Planning Ride

The newly formed Edmonton Bicycle Club will undertake its second hike of the season tomorrow afternoon according to Chairman Bob Lang.

The club plans to meet at the Recreation Building at 7 p.m. and ride to Whitehead Creek for an afternoon of games, followed by supper. Prizes for the games are being provided by the Edmonton Safety Council.

A meeting of the club will be held at 7 p.m. Monday in the Recreation Building for the purpose of electing a distinctive badge for members. Also up for planning will be next Sunday's ride to the Edmonton Club which will play host to the club from St. Albert.

LI-ONDR Ken Grant, of Ottawa, said "some think they will be coming back next week, when there's simply nothing to come back to."

Muddy Water
Brownish, muddy water from the swollen Red River wrecked 58 homes in Morris and surrounding farm areas, relief officials said.

Water still was three to 10 feet deep in some parts of Morris, although the river was receding steadily throughout the Red River valley.

"The luckiest house in Morris is the worst hit in Winnipeg," said a navy officer said in drawing a comparison.

FILTHY WATERS
Inspector K. M. Lockwood of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police said 19 homes had the first and second floors submerged, and 922 had basements filled by the filthy flood waters.

Harold J. Riley, chairman of the restoration committee of the Manitoba flood relief fund, said after a tour of the area, "an immediate appraisal of the damage is impossible, because it is incalculable."

CUT ASSESSMENTS
Mayor Garnet Coulter of Winnipeg said flood waters were receding in the city more rapidly than had been expected, but he said the interior damage to homes in the flood areas was appalling.

Flood damage was expected to be heavily into the city's assessments on real estate, said the city's Housing Corporation, which is a part of the Greater Winnipeg district, had been surrounded by water and flood.

Provincial government departments yesterday completed preliminary rough estimates of their flood costs. They totalled $3,500,000, mostly in damage to roads and public buildings.

HONG KONG, June 3.—(AP)—The Chinese Communist part of Swatow today was reported closed—perhaps to mask Red troop movements to the northeast coast.

Swatow is opposite Formosa, National island which is expected to be a Communist invasion attempt. It has been on the Red's timetable for this year.

Volcano Drives Families From Hawaiian Homes

KEALAKEKUA, Hawaii, June 3.—(AP)—By Radio—Heavy black smoke from erupting Mauna Loa covers hundreds of acres of Hawaii's Kona coast today, between 60 and 80 families have fled their homes. Lava has eaten into parts of villages.

It is a scene of total desolation and beauty created by one of the world's most active volcanoes. Here and there is a fallen tree knocked over by the lava that will spill over the sides of the crater.

Mauna Loa broke loose Thursday night after a sleep of 18 months. Volcanologist Roy H. Frost of the Hawaii volcano observatory said it was the most violent eruption on record for the tone of lava spewed within the first few hours.

He predicted it might last two weeks.

Storm Kills Chicago Nun

CHICAGO, June 3.—(AP)—A sudden electrical storm struck Chicago last night, killing one person and causing heavy damage.

Thousands of basements and scores of viaducts were flooded. Hundreds of homes on the south side were blacked out for several hours. About 300 persons were evacuated from buildings on the southwest side when high tension wires snapped.

The roof of the padlock at the Maywood park track in suburban Maywood was blown away 100 feet on to the tracks of the Soo line railroad.

At the height of the storm, Mother Superior Lucille Pellmar, 50, of St. Philip Basil, Roman Catholic church, was electrocuted. Firemen said she went to a flooded basement to salvage some food from a refrigerator and reached up to turn on an overhanging light. She was found lying in four inches of water.

She'll Be Ready
MONTREAL, June 3.—(UP)—Mrs. Clara Gould was preparing for the future when she advertised for a public teacher. Mrs. Gould said she wasn't taking the course with an eye toward immediate use, but what with the state of the world, it might come in handy later, she said as bookkeeping.

The proposal, if approved, would permit Canada to pay for arms only when they have been delivered. Such a plan would eliminate a number of technical problems, such as bookkeeping.

Builders, Workers Sign Agreement

New Deal Starts July 1 With 98-Cent Minimum Wage

A general two-year agreement was signed in Edmonton yesterday between the Building and Construction Laborers International Union, Local 92 (TCL—APL) and the General Contractors Association (Builders' Exchange).

Agreement calls for minimum wage of 98 cents an hour, effective July 1.

Labor men have said the two-year clause was aimed at stabilizing wages and conditions in this area.

SECOND HIGHEST
They hailed the 98 cents an hour as an example of "backlog" conditions in Edmonton area. The new rate, they said, gives this district the second highest rate in Canada for this type of work.

They placed in the country paying a higher rate in Vancouver, they stated.

The agreement was signed yesterday by J. W. Forester, president of the construction section of the Builders' Exchange, and C. W. Alton, secretary of the Exchange, the contractors.

EMPLOYMENT PREFERENCE
Besides the 98 cent an hour rate, the agreement provides that members of Local 92 be given preference of employment by the Exchange.

It also calls for eight-hour day and 44-hour week, with time and a half for time over eight hours on weekdays or over four hours on weekends.

MAN SHOT TO DEATH IN NEW YORK PARK

NEW YORK, June 3.—(UP)—A gunman shot to death an unidentified elderly man early today as he sat on a park bench in view of witnesses.

Bystanders said the gunman approached the white-haired man, shot him three times in the chest, looked into his face as though to make sure he had killed the right man, then fled before witnesses could stop him.

Police said the gunman was described by the witnesses as a "youthful appearing white man." The shooting took place at O'Brien Square in Bronx Park.

U.S. Casts Doubt On Soviet Economic Plan

WASHINGTON, June 3.—(UP)—There still is "considerable doubt" that the Russians will succeed in welding the Soviet Union and her satellites into a solid economic bloc, the agriculture department's foreign office said today.

The entire creation of the bloc is geared to the needs of the Soviet Union and not of the satellites, it said.

Department added that success of the Soviet integration with the satellites would depend on three factors:

1. Success in industrializing the predominantly agricultural satellites.

2. Continued ability of the satellites to supply the Soviet Union with raw materials and other goods as necessary for industrial production.

3. Continued ability of the satellites to supply the Soviet Union with raw materials and other goods as necessary for industrial production.
